Took $2,000,000
for own use

GAVE CHRONICLE $40,000

And the Rest was Distributed for the Benefit of His Interests

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 18.—The federal grand jury today returned an indictment against John R. Walsh on 182 counts alleging that he fraudulently applied over two millions to his personal account upon fictitious and unsecured paper, then upon "memorandum notes" dispensed most of this illegally gained cash to his industrial properties, principally the Illinois Southern, Southern Indiana and Wisconsin and Michigan railroads. The Chicago Chronicle is mentioned as having received $40,000. It is charged he did so without knowledge or consent of the directors or officials of the bank. The clearing house committee only realized a little over $8,000 on sales of Walsh's industrial stocks and bonds.

MINERS BITTER TOWARD STATES

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 18.—The miners this morning adopted a resolution criticizing the governors of Colorado and Idaho for what they termed unwarranted prosecution of Moyer, Pettibone and Haywood. The resolution declares "It is not the intention of the courts of Idaho to give the accused men a fair, impartial trial. The extradition was contrary to law, covered by fraud and is a disgrace to the jurisprudence of the people."

DEMAND RELIEF FROM THE FLOOD

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 18.—Shawneetown this morning appealed to the governor for relief from the floods. The adjutant general dispatched a hundred tents at once. The levee gave way at Shawneetown this morning.

10,000 Homeless
CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 18.—It is estimated this morning that ten thousand are homeless on account of the flood. The water is still rising and the rain continues.

LUMBER TRUST IS THE WORST OF ALL OF THEM

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—Kittredge, in the senate today attacked the lumber trust as the "most gigantic, exacting and soulless of the trusts that oppress the people." He said the profits are beyond all reason, competition is wholly stifled and a black list is maintained.

POWERS NO LONGER IS PRESIDENT

Former Leader of League Deposed

MOLL, MILWAUKEE, AT HEAD

At Election in Eau Claire
Today, Elliott is Put on Finance Committee

President John T. Powers of the Wisconsin baseball league, was deposed at the annual meeting in Eau Claire today and is succeeded to the presidency of the league by C. F. Moll, Milwaukee. Powers' demand for an increase of salary from $800 to $1,000 per year, together with Freeport's opposition is taken to be the cause. The following officers were elected at the session this morning: President—C. F. Moll, Milwaukee. Vice president—L. F. Lane, Oshkosh. Treasurer—G. B. Wheeler, Eau Claire. Finance committee—J. A. Elliott, La Crosse, and R. P. Wilcox, Eau Claire. Hayes of Davenport was also a candidate for the presidency. The business session this morning decided not to accept Powers' demand for $1,500 per year and a four-year contract. The principal work today was consideration of whether to let Winona, Minn., or Rockford, Ill., into the league to make the eighth club. Madison was admitted last night. Keene and Rodemeyer of Freeport will go to Rockford and Elliott of La Crosse and Wilcox of Eau Claire to Winona to look over the field and report to the directors. The directors will then decide by a postal card vote. The committee on the revision of the constitution was granted more time and President Moll will call a meeting to be held in Milwaukee in February to revise the league's constitution and to frame up a schedule of games for the season.

Powers' Stand
The following from this morning's issue of the Eau Claire Leader tells of the proceedings of yesterday's meeting, and the stand taken by former President Powers: "The regular annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Baseball league convened at the Elks' clubrooms in this city last evening, and started out with a very animated and interesting session. President J. T. Powers' recent resignation precipitated a lively discussion. However, the resignation was accepted, and upon motion was reconsidered, and will come up for definite action at tomorrow's session. Mr. Powers refused to officiate as the league's executive at the present salary of $800. He made the league a proposition to take the office for a four-year term at a salary of $1,500. The question was taken into executive session last night, but no definite action was reached, some favoring granting the increase, while others opposed it. "The meeting was called to order at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with the cities comprising the league represented as follows: Green Bay, F. B. Weeks; Freeport, F. O. Keene and F. Rodemeyer; Madison, E. G. Farlin and Howard Cassibone; Wausau, Ovid Belanger; Oshkosh, J. H. Larie; La Crosse, J. A. Elliott; Eau Claire,

Walter ("Baldie") Fisher pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery upon W. E. Barber, president of The Tribune Publishing company, in appeal from county court before Judge Fruit in circuit court this morning. Judge Fruit passed the same sentence of Acting County Judge C. L. Baldwin, a fine of $25 and costs and ten days in jail, or thirty days in jail if the fine is not paid. Before passing sentence Judge Fruit asked for information on the dastardly and unprovoked assault. W. E. Barber, the complainant, was sworn, while I. O. Verket, a bookkeeper employed by the John Gund Brewing company, testified for the state. Frank Aken, register of deeds, was called by the defense and recited the incidents leading to the thuggery. Fisher appeared repentant this morning. Before the high tribunal he had little to say. He was ready for sentence. Friends asserted that Fisher has been willing to plead guilty and begin his sentence for several weeks. A misreading of the judgment of the lower court will allow Fisher six days' freedom in event the fine and costs are not paid. The judgment of the lower court was ten days in jail and a fine of $25 and costs, not to exceed ninety days in jail if the fine is not paid. Judge Fruit was informed by Attorney Higbee that the sentence was for thirty days instead of ninety. The writing of Judge Brindley was almost unintelligible and led to the mistake. In all events the mistake probably will be a matter of small consequence for friends of Fisher probably will pay the fine. "The sentence of thirty days, if the fine and costs are not paid, will stand," said Judge Fruit after the trial. "I don't believe an attempt was made to mislead the court. My sentence is final and although I said I desired to uphold the judgment of the lower court, the sentence will be for thirty days. The fine and costs probably will be paid."

Fisher assaulted Mr. Barber on Oct. 25 in the saloon of George Holzhammer, 1935 South Third street, late at night. Mr. Barber had been lured to the place for the evident purpose of assault. On Oct. 26 a warrant charging assault with intent to do great bodily harm was sworn out. William ("Cockeye") Crowley was included in the complaint. The defendants were discharged, owing to the inability of Mr. Barber to appear in court at the appointed time. On Oct. 27, a new warrant, charging the same offense, was sworn out. On Nov. 14, the trial was held and the defendants discharged by C. L. Baldwin, acting county judge.

A new warrant, charging Fisher with assault and battery, was secured. He entered a plea of guilty, expecting a light fine from Judge Baldwin. The heavy sentence was imposed. Appeal was taken to circuit court immediately, in the hope that a jury would acquit the prisoner or Judge Fruit make the fine less severe. Since then Fisher changed his mind and entered the plea of guilty, closing the case. The sentence of Judge Fruit follows: "Upon a plea of guilty, you, Walter Fisher, are sentenced to the county jail of La Crosse county for a period of ten days, starting at 12 o'clock noon this day, also a fine of $25 and costs in this action, and in default of said fine and costs, that you be imprisoned in the county jail of La Crosse county until such fine and costs are paid, not to exceed thirty days."

The costs are about $400. Fisher's fine and costs had not been paid at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. At noon Fisher was taken to the county jail and placed in a cell.

SEES DANGER OF MONSTER LOBBY

Bancroft Thinks Reference Library Should be Kept Such

Foresees Strong Lobby
MADISON, Wis., Jan. 18.—The legislative reference library is engaged in a political squabble over the introduction of a bill to make an emergency appropriation for the benefit of the department. So complex has been the work placed upon the library corps that a number of skilled attorneys have been hired to draft bills for immediate introduction. All went well until it came time to pay for the service, and for fear the library become a political bugaboo, Assemblyman Levi H. Bancroft of Richland Center asked that the bill be temporarily held up for investigation. "We may be creating the biggest lobby the state ever saw," said Mr. Bancroft in explaining his action to members last night. "If the special interests of the state should get a grip on this department it would take us twenty years to shake it off. I am opposed to making the bureau out of all proportions with the assembly or the governor. I would keep this library what it should be, a purely reference library."

In the senate everything is in favor of doing what it possibly can for the library of which Dr. Charles H. McCarthy is chief statistician. Senator J. H. Stout has introduced a bill which calls for a large general appropriation for the use of this library. Members of the assembly believe the work of the department should be carefully fostered. After the intent of the law had been explained yesterday, Assemblyman Bancroft withdrew his objection and the bill for the $5,000 appropriation Success in every form attended the eleventh annual banquet of the Franklin club in the North Presbyterian church, Avon and Logan streets, last night, in commemoration of the two hundred and first anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, the patron saint of the society. About 125 members and invited friends sat down to the festive board. The large audience room was used for the reception of the guests. Here the members of the club received and formally introduced the visitors. The reception committee, in charge of this work, consisted of Rev. A. Murphy, chairman, W. J. Turner, W. E. Barber, A. A. Bentley, F. H. Hartwell, C. C. Looney and George B. Marvin Jr.

The banquet committee, C. H. Berry, chairman, D. L. Wartinec, secretary, and H. L. Taylor, had made all arrangements for the banquet. Music was rendered by Kretz's orchestra during the introduction of the guests and the time intervening before the feast began. In the Sunday school room where a large flag with a picture of Franklin over it adorned one side, the tables were spread, pretty candelabras and carnations encircling the setting. The banquet was served by the ladies of the church, and consisted of:

LARGEST CROWD

Evangelist Tells Audience Man is an Animal; the Type he Chooses

It was feared the audience at St. Paul's Universalist church last night would be small. At the hour of the service it was storming. The Y. M. C. A. convention was opening and several public suppers were being served. In spite of these facts the audience was the largest thus far with the possible exception of Sunday evening.

Much interest is centering in the lecture to ladies Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. on the "New Womanhood." The attendance will no doubt be large.

The trend of the sermon last night is indicated by the following paragraphs: "Man is an animal. He is more than an animal and he may be an animal of a very high order, but he is an animal among other animals. He is a creature of the senses. He has a sense of sight, a sense of hearing, a sense of taste, a sense of smell, a sense of touch. Well, thus far man is an animal. The fish hawk shoots down into the water and brings up a fish. He believes in his eye. Now there are men who refuse to be more than an animal. They say we will believe only what we can see, hear, taste, smell, touch. The magician, however, fools the eye constantly. The sky looks higher right over your head than it does on the distant hill top. In fact it seems to come down and touch the summit of it. The ancients thought it did.

"But man is an intellectual being. He can think out arguments, construct a chain of logic and draw conclusions. The reason corrects the errors of the senses; so in the course of time the human race has learned that the sky is no higher or lower at one point than it is at another. Well, some men say we will believe only what we can search out with the lamp of reason. But the reason can not always be trusted. Men have believed what they supposed reason had absolutely confirmed and today their beliefs are so false they are laughable. "Now, above all this man is a creature of the heart. Under this head we must include the emotions and the intuitions; the things we believe because they just came to us and we accept them because they answer to our inborn hopes. Sense has not created them, reason has not thought them and given them to us. Immortality I suppose is a belief born of the heart. The mother looked into the face of the dead child and thought to herself, 'That which I loved is gone but it is still alive and in another world.' There is as much reason for believing that the beliefs of the heart are reliable as there is for trusting the impressions of the physical senses or the mandates of reason."

Trouble, However, is Not

Robert A. Ladd, postmaster at Lytle, Wis., is under arrest for irregularities in his office, discovered by Postoffice Inspector E. E. Fraser of this city. Though an acknowledged shortage of about $90 was made up by Ladd, his arrest followed and he was released under $500 bonds until the irregularities are thoroughly investigated.

It seems that the sale of stamps at Lytle is small, there being only a few families in the place. A large sale of stamps excited suspicion and Inspector Fraser, upon looking over the postmaster's books found they had been "padded" and that about $90 was missing. The postmaster declared that he did not know what became of them, and supposed they got lost. Investigation, however, developed that $60 worth of stamps had been sent to a Chicago mail order house by Ladd in one lot.

The $90 shortage was made up by Ladd, being explained as poor bookkeeping, but it was deemed advisable by the authorities to secure him for appearance before the next federal grand jury by securing a warrant for his arrest. It is also thought that other instances of poor bookkeeping will be dug up in the office, and in this event the defendant will be secure.

He was brought to the city today and bondsmen were secured to furnish the $500 bonds pending the next session of the grand jury, and a further investigation into the affairs of the Lytle postoffice. Ladd was formerly sheriff of La Crosse county, but has been a resident of Lytle for some years.

SUE TRUST FOR MILLIONS IN ARK.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 18.—Suits for alleged violation of the anti-trust laws of the state were filed this morning against Armour & Co., the Armour Packing company, the Waters-Pierce Oil company, Hammond Packing company, Morris & Co., and Cudahy Packing company for amounts aggregating $1,833,000 each. Judgments asked are in the nature of penalties.

Governor Davis retired this morning and Little was inaugurated. Davis will be elected to the senate next Tuesday.

was passed. It will probably go through the senate Tuesday when it reconvenes. In the meantime Bancroft will conduct a thorough investigation of the work in the department before the general appropriation bill for the department comes up for consideration.

Bancroft After Student Voters

Following the fight over the appropriation bill, Assemblyman Bancroft introduced a measure to limit the floating vote of the state to a minimum by compelling university, normal school and high school students, traveling men and employees to vote at their domiciled residences. For violations of the law he provides a minimum sentence of $25 or thirty days in jail, or both. The bill is aimed particularly at the state university here, where the students under the leadership of a political boss deliver the vote for whoever the leader might select. It has been the rule to reward these student political leaders with jobs in the capitol. It is to curb this evil that the law has been introduced although it will have an effect on every normal school town in the state, including La Crosse, if the La Crosse normal bill is passed, as it surely will be.

New Committee Confused

The legislature is slow in getting down to business. Thursday a recess was taken by both houses until next Tuesday at 10 o'clock. Much of the delay is placed upon the shoulders of the revision committee, the new departure in the legislative annals in Wisconsin. This committee handles all bills and refers them to the committee most able to handle the work instead of the speaker referring the bill to some committee when it is introduced, without noting the exact contents of the proposed measure as was the past custom. The committee is unfamiliar with its duties and the delay in referring new bills has left the others without any duties to attend to or hearings to conduct.

Fight for Lush's Job

Aside from legislative duties the members are gossiping over the fight of Secretary Frear to appoint his chief clerk against the wishes of the civil service commission. About two weeks prior to inauguration, Colonel Charles K. Lush, formerly a newspaper man of La Crosse, resigned. Secretary Houser wanted to fill the position by promotion, but objection was raised and he left the position vacant. With the coming of Mr. Frear into office he appointed L. B. Nagler of Hudson, editor of the St. Croix Observer, to the place and then wrote the merit board a letter asking it to give a non-competitive examination to his man. The matter was referred to the attorney general who held the position should be filled by promotion. Despite this blow Mr. Frear still retains his clerk and asks that the position be made exempt from the ruling of the commission. This matter has not been determined upon.

Wants Clerk to Do Work

An interesting incident grows out of the retention of Mr. Nagler. Secretary Frear ordered him Thursday to sign the vouchers to pay the employees about the capitol. This he did as was directed, but on the presentation of the warrants by the individuals State Treasurer Kempf refused to pay a cent until the secretary had signed the vouchers himself. Mr. Dahl claims it is clearly the intent of the statute that the secretary should sign the warrants. Mr. Frear claims he will carry the matter to the supreme court. Thursday afternoon the attorney general ruled the secretary of state must sign the warrants and in the face of this adverse decision a large number of the vouchers received the signature of the secretary last night. He claims the matter is by no means settled and he will appeal over the head of the attorney general. Mr. Frear says his eyesight is so poor he cannot sign the vouchers.

AT THE THEATERS

"The Pit" Coming

The great pivotal scene of the play, made from Frank Norris' novel "The Pit" for Wm. A. Brady, in which Wright Huntington appears as a star at the head of a large and distinguished company of artists will be seen at the La Crosse theater, Thursday, January 24, is the panic in the Chicago wheat pit. The whole story is tragic, intense rising to this tremendous climax, yet one feels its calm sincerity and truthfulness. It is without a doubt, the most American play written, just as the novel of Frank Norris was the most American novel. In no other country, of no other people, could such a picture be drawn. What Owen Wister said of the book is equally true of the play. "You feel the force, the personality, the attitude towards life that lie behind the words, the story is but a medium through which you have met somebody."

Mr. Pollock has developed every possibility of the great panic scene as the story is told by Mr. Norris. Manager Brady has invested it with astounding enterprise. A multitude of men are used in this scene which is an exact reproduction of the Board of Trade of Chicago. The picture of Curtis Jadwin as he staggers into the pit on that last day, his brain benumbed, his eyes congested with blood, and bids in wheat at a fabulous price, which his agents had positively refused to do, is one of the most remarkable pictures ever presented by an actor on any stage, just as Norris' description is one of the most remarkable pictures of human emotion in literature.

"Jadwin himself, the great man, the great bull in the pit." What was about to happen? Had they been too premature in their hope of his defeat? Had he been preparing some secret unexpected maneuver? For a second they hesitated, then moved by a common impulse feeling the push of the wonderful harvest behind them they gathered themselves together for the final assault, and again offered the wheat for sale; offered it by thousands upon thousands of bushels; as it were the reaping of entire principalities out upon the floor of the Board of Trade.

Jadwin was in the thick of the confusion by now. And the avalanche the undiked ocean of wheat, leaping to the lash of the hurricane, struck him fairly in the face. He heard it now for he heard nothing else—the wheat had broken from his control. For months he had, by the might of his single arm, held it back; but now it rose like the upbuilding of a colossal billow. It tossed, hung poised for an instant and then, with a thunder as of the grind and crash of chaotic worlds, broke upon him, burst through the pit and raced past him on and on to the eastward and to the hungry nations.

And then, under the stress and violence of the hour, something snapped in his brain. The mark behind his eyes had been suddenly pierced by a white flash. The strange qualms and tiny nervous paroxysms of the last few months all at once culminated in some indefinite, indefinable crisis, and the wheels and cogs of all activities save one, lapsed away and ceased. Only one function of the complicated machine persisted; but it moved with a rapidity of vibration that seemed to be tearing the tissues of being to shreds. While its rhyme beat out the old and terrible cadence:

"Wheat—wheat. Wheat—wheat—wheat."

Blind and insensate, Jadwin strove against the torrents of the wheat there in the middle of the pit, surrounded and assaulted by herd after herd of wolves, yelping for his destruction. He stood braced rigid upon his feet, his head up, his hand, the great bony hand that once had held the whole pit in its grip, flung high in the air, in a gesture of defiance while his voice like the clangor of bugles sounding to the charge of the forlorn hope, rang out again and again, over the din of his enemies. "Give a dollar for July—give a dollar for July!" and so it continued until the secretary of the Board of Trade announced that all trades with Grotry, Converse & company must be closed at once, and Jadwin was led from the pit."

Francis Wilson, who deserted musical comedy two years ago for comedy without music and tinsel, will begin his third season under the management of Charles Frohman at the La Crosse theater Tuesday, Jan. 22.

Mr. Wilson will present his latest success that created great enthusiasm and much laughter at the Criterion theater, New York, last spring, "The Mountain Climber." The play provides Mr. Wilson with splendid opportunities for the exploitation of his peculiar style of humor.

The plot hinges upon the efforts of Montague Sibsey to deceive his fine wife. In order to cover certain absences in Paris, where he has been posing as a theatrical manager, Sibsey writes long and ardent epistles to his spouse, in which he relates tales of thrilling adventures in the Alps, where he avers he has been spending certain weeks ascending dangerous peaks. As a matter of fact Sibsey has never seen the Alps, but he overcomes this trifling obstacle by studiously perusing a work on that subject by Arthur Lydbrook, and copying therefrom pages of descriptive matter. The deception works beautifully until the wife, influenced by the tales of wondrous adventure, decides to fete her husband as a real hero, and as an initial step in that direction she causes his thrilling letters to be published in book form. Thereafter she arranges for his home-coming, the local Alpine society is invited to send a deputation and the editor of a paper devoted to mountain climbing arrives to interview him. As an upshot Mr. Sibsey finds himself booked to climb an inaccessible peak and the whole family repairs to the Alps to see him do it. Naturally everything goes wrong, even to the meeting of the man from whose book he stole his tales of adventure. The many complications that ensue create no end of laughter and the auditor is kept deeply interested throughout the three acts of this clever farce. Mr. Frohman has provided an exceptionally strong company, which includes that charming comedienne, May Robson, Ellen Mortimer, Joseph Brennan, Edna Bruns, Elsa Garrett, Frank Goldsmith and others.

There is an elaborate scenic production. Seats may be reserved at 9 a. m. tomorrow at the theater.

GENERAL LEE'S BIRTHDAY

(Tribune Special Service.)

LEXINGTON, Va., Jan. 18.—Of the scores of observances to be held throughout the south in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gen. Robert E. Lee, it is safe to assert that none will be of more notable or imposing character than that to be held here under the auspices of Washington and Lee University, his alma mater. Preparations for the observance have been going forward for several months. The chief celebration is to be held tomorrow, but preliminary exercises are to take place tonight under the auspices of the Graham-Lee Literary society. By a happy selection the oration tomorrow will be delivered by Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts, who was one of General Lee's opponents in the Civil war.

After the war and after General Lee had been offered many positions of honor and emolument the great leader felt that there was no higher call to duty, and no greater privilege for him than to spend the remainder of his life in endeavoring to influence young men in mental, moral and spiritual development. So he became president of Washington college and later of the University of the South. During the five years that General Lee was spared to preside over the institution and impress his influence upon those committed to his charge more than 900 students were enrolled.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE ELECT
The Baptist Young People's union of the Scandinavian Baptist church met last evening at the home of Miss Blanche Mason of Avon street.
The officers elected are as follows:
President—Miss Blanche Mason.
Vice president—Orin Nelson.
Secretary—Miss Magna Larson.
Treasurer—Roy Jerander.
Organist—Rosselli Knutson.
After the election refreshments were served and all enjoyed the evening very much.
GIRL FALLS UPON RINK
Miss Elsie Maine of Avon street last evening was skating on the causeway when a boy suddenly slid under her feet from behind and caused her to fall heavily upon her head.
She was taken home by a companion and was somewhat hysterical all evening but is feeling much better this morning and nothing serious is expected to develop.

FATAL ACCIDENT REPORTED
Trainmen report that the Pioneer limited struck a carriage last evening at Wyocena, nine miles east of Portage.
A man and two ladies were in the carriage. Two of the occupants are said to have been killed outright and the third is in a critical condition.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS
Business on the Milwaukee road is gradually slackening up. During the last few days several men have been laid off and orders were received this morning to lay off eighteen of the extra brakemen.
Clarence Hyde, the Milwaukee switchman who had his foot badly bruised a few days ago, is able to be about today with difficulty.
Two engines, cabooses and entire train crews of the Milwaukee road were sent to Minneapolis yesterday.
Miss Sylvia Nelson will entertain the Bible class of the Scandinavian church this evening at her home on Charles street.

JEROME "NAILS" SOME GRAFTERS
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The evidence drawn from eight municipal ownership league members of the board of aldermen before the grand jury, District Attorney Jerome announced convinced him that at least two members of the board were connected with the attempt to sell their votes at the election of a recorder to succeed John W. Goff.
Who the men are Mr. Jerome would not say. Of course one of them of Ald. Clifford of Queens, who was caught with $6,000 in market bills in his pocket and who agreed with a reporter of a local newspaper that he (Clifford) would deliver the votes of the municipal ownership aldermen to elect Rufus B. Cowing. Mr. Jerome and his assistants, Smith and Murphy, expressed themselves as highly pleased today with the work accomplished in exposing the gang of city officials who are said to have agreed to sell their votes for $500 apiece.
"It is the best piece of work I have seen done in years," said Mr. Jerome, "and I would be pleased to have the newspaper man who worked up this case become a member of my staff."
Mr. Jerome and his assistants expect that before they get through with the investigation they will have enough evidence to send more than one alderman to state prison.

NOVEL CURE FOR COLDS.
Healing Medication that is Breathed Giving Quick Relief.

It seems just as ridiculous to put medicine into the stomach to cure a cold in the head or lungs as it does to go out in the rain if we want to keep dry.
The fact that many people right in La Crosse cough and hawk and snuffle for days and weeks after they treat a cold with the usual stomach dosing, shows how valueless are the ordinary cough and cold cures.
The right way to cure a cold in the head or a cough and irritation in the throat and lungs, is by breathing Hyomei's medicated air. Put a few drops of Hyomei in the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit and breathe this healing aid for a few times and immediate relief will be noted. The medication goes right to the spot where the disease germs are located and renders them harmless in the future.
At the same time the soothing and healing effects of Hyomei on the irritated mucous membrane give quick relief, and the cough or cold is broken up.
The best evidence of the great value of Hyomei in curing coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles is the fact that O. T. Erhart gives an absolute guarantee with every outfit he sells, that if it does not give satisfaction, the money will be refunded.
A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a bottle of Hyomei, the inhaler and a medicine dropper, costs but $1, while extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be obtained for only 50c.

The money given to the National Cigar Stands in this and more than towns was expected. Here are signs of proven merit and proven constitution, selling for
A THIRD TO A HALF LESS MONEY than was ever asked for equal quality in the history of the cigar business. Success was certain.
It isn't a "bargain occasion." It isn't a fad. It isn't a spasmodic effort. It's the natural result of a common-sense, fundamental merchandising principle.
Two thousand stores buy as one. Their cigars are produced in million lots and each store gets its share straight from the producer. No intermediate profits, no jobber's "rake-off," no rents, no selling expenses to speak of! And all the saving given to the smoker.
We have already told you how this plan gives 3 for 25c. cigars for 5c. Now take
LA IDALIA
Panetelas—10c.
La Idalia is one of the best clear Havana cigars produced in the United States. Nothing is used in it but selected Cuban-grown leaf, fully ripened; sweet, rich and aromatic. There are 12 sizes, each selling at the price usually asked for the next larger size.
Besides that, each size weighs two pounds to the thousand more than the usual weight of the same shape. La Idalia is only one of the many exclusive brands produced and sold exclusively by the National Cigar Stands Co., each showing the same tremendous saving in price-for-quality.

TOMATOES GROW IN CELLAR
VEPGENNES, Vt., Jan. 18.—How it was that Fred Porter of this town could serve fresh sliced tomatoes on his table after the snow covered the gardens and Lake Champlain froze so hard that a team could be driven across it was a great mystery until Mr. Porter explained it. Until this week he contented himself with asking the neighbors in to dine on the tomatoes or in sending them to invalids. To inquiries he laughed and said his method was so simple that anyone could make a success of it.
It now develops that late in the fall Mr. Porter feared the frost would blight the tomatoes, so he dug up the heavily laden vines and transplanted them in his cellar. He figured that if celery would mature in sand tomatoes might continue to grow in loam and into bins of the latter he packed the roots. He then watered the plants and watched developments.
For a few days the vines appeared to wilt, but they then freshened up and the tomatoes began to grow. Some blossoms were noted and these in time took on shape and developed. The tomatoes, although they grew rapidly, refused to ripen, so Mr. Porter picked them and placed them under glass.
Once in the strong sun the tomatoes began to redden and the experimenter was delighted. The first "crop" was used at Thanksgiving dinner, much to the amazement of the guests, and after that the delicacy was added to the Sunday meal. Thus far the experiment had been a huge success and Mr. Porter believes that by placing young plants in his cellar next fall he can have tomatoes all winter. Several of his neighbors will try their luck next November.

J. P. MORGAN QUILTS HARD LABOR
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—J. P. Morgan has not been at his office since the holidays. This fact has led to repeated rumors that he has been seriously ill, and it was used by speculators interested in breaking prices to spread the story throughout this country and Europe that he was at the point of death.
While this was going on, Mr. Morgan sat in the directors' room of the Grand Central depot, smoking a big cigar and in the best of health. When he heard of the rumor of his serious illness he telephoned Jack Morgan, his son, to send prompt denials over the telegraph wires to representatives of the firm and to give the facts to the Wall street news agencies.
While Mr. Morgan's obituary will not be written for years, Wall street will see little of him in future except when financial matters of great importance require his attention. Mr. Morgan has practically retired from business.

It was learned upon high authority that the financier has placed his affairs in such shape that it will not be necessary for him in future to give personal attention to the business of his banking house. It will hereafter be in the hands of J. P. Morgan Jr. his son, who since Jan. 1 has been the practical head of both the New York and London houses. Mr. Morgan remains the senior partner, but he will be a consulting rather than an active member.
Mr. Morgan is nearly 70, but he is in vigorous health and is both mentally and physically as alert as he was twenty years ago. He has really been an active factor in Wall street since the flotation of the United States Steel corporation, which he regarded as the crowning achievement of his career. The Northern Securities litigation forced him to give serious attention to Northern Pacific affairs but since the dissolution of the Northern Securities company they no longer require his personal attention. What stocks he has are of an investment character entirely.
The death of Samuel Spencer was a deep personal loss to Mr. Morgan and had a great influence in hastening his retirement from active affairs, according to one of his associates.
At the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., it was said that Mr. Morgan since the holidays has transacted all of his business in his library adjoining his Madison avenue home.
It's difficult for a man to keep cool when he is between two fires.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup
Pleasant to take and does not gripe or nauseate
Cures Chronic Constipation, Stomach and Liver Trouble
Stimulation Without Irritation.
ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new laxative syrup combined with the delicious flavor of fruits, and is very pleasant to take. It will not gripe or sicken. It is much more pleasant and effective than Pills, Tablets and Saline Waters, as it does not derange the Stomach, or irritate the Kidneys, Liver or Bowels.
Constipation.
ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup will positively cure chronic constipation as it restores the natural action of the intestinal tract. Ordinary cathartics may give temporary relief but the stomach is upset and the bowels are irritated without any permanent benefit having been derived.
The condition of the patient remains unchanged. The Stomach, Liver and Bowels have not been stimulated and in a few days a stronger purgative may have to be taken. This is why Pills and Aperient Waters never give permanent relief. Their violent action results in an unnatural movement of the bowels and it is necessary to keep taking them indefinitely.
Why ORINO is different.
ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is the only preparation that really acts upon all of the digestive organs. Other preparations act upon the lower bowel only and do not touch the Liver. It can very readily be seen that a preparation that does not act upon all of the digestive organs can not cure Chronic Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc.
For Billiousness and Sick Headache.
Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup. It sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and acts as a gentle stimulant on the liver and bowels without irritating these organs.
Clears the Complexion.
ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Refuse substitutes.
Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup and if you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.
Prepared only by FOLEY & CO., Chicago, Ill.

Entered as Second-class Matter June 24, 1904, at the Postoffice at La Crosse, Wis., Under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Special Representatives: Payne & Young, Chicago, 948 Marquette Building; New York City, 510 Potter Building.

REVIVALS IN LA CROSSE

Some months ago—a very few months ago—a minister would have held up his hands in despair, had you asked him about spiritual La Crosse. A revival, most people believed was impossible. La Crosse was described as a "peculiar city," unlike any other on the face of the globe.

Its people, you would have been told, were strange people; they would not listen to an evangelist, because they were queer.

Now it is different.

Evangelists have come and gone, and evangelists are still here, and if you ask a minister today about La Crosse, he will smile and tell you his eyes have been opened.

The evangelists preach to large and growing congregations, and the interest is on the bound in religious work just now.

There is hope—great hope—for that "peculiar city"—La Crosse.

Rev. Dr. McGlauffin, following the Rev. Dr. Biederwolf, is meeting with gratifying success in the conduct of a week of evangelistic services, and those to follow him will no doubt find that La Crosse is not the lost city she was thought to be a few months ago.

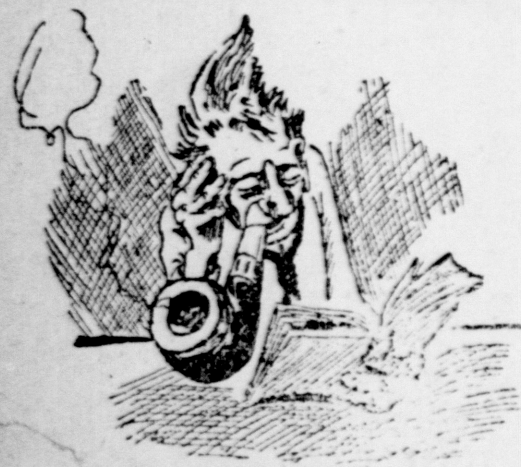

The Sentinel certainly feels proud of Spooner since he attacked Tillman. But wait—

There are disadvantages of warm winters—Chicago's epidemic of disease, for instance.

"Trouble never comes single"—it's usually when married.

Some people let assets, as well as opportunity, slip from them.

JUST LIFE

have never dared to stand up for the right against the wrong; you have never protected the weak against the bully; you have never dared defend your own right against oppression. Had you done any of these things you would have enemies. Even if you had done none of these things, but simply achieved a little more success in your business than your neighbor, you would have an enemy, for failure always hates success."

—W. V. K.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS

Olga Nethersole, the famous emotional actress, who has played on this side of the Atlantic so much as to have almost become an American, was born in Kensington, January 18, 1870, the daughter of a London solicitor. Some years of her childhood were spent in Germany. She made her first appearance on the stage at the age of eighteen in the Theater Royal, Brighton, as a member of one of Charles Hawtrey's companies. Her next engagement was in a provincial company. Her first "hit" in London was made in a commonplace melodrama at the Adelphi theater. Then she accepted the second woman's part in Mr. Pinero's first "problem" play, "The Profligate." A short time afterward she went to Australia at the head of her own company, and returned to London in time to take a leading part in a revival of "Diplomacy" at the Garrick theater. In 1894 Miss Nethersole was lessee and manager of the Court theater, London. In the fall of the same year she paid her first professional visit to America. Since that time she has made several starring tours of the United States, also acting as manager of her own company. The chief characteristic of Miss Nethersole's acting is its thrilling intensity, which has won for her marked success in emotional roles.

Most people will agree with Rev. McGlauffin that man is an animal, and a most peculiar one.

Sometimes a jag is entirely unnecessary to produce the "big-head."

Most newspaper men are so used to it, they don't mind abuse.

Oshkosh found it necessary to cut the wires of its car company. La Crosse's car company is coming to be regarded as a friendly institution since those new cars were ordered.

Miners object to the commerce and labor bureau and want a separate labor promotion department of government.

Jim Hill has not yet cut the $60,000,000 melon.

Gracious, but what a lot of needed legislation is being delayed while the corporation senators are taking up the time trying to make a mountain out of the Brownsville molehill.

Why We Have Enemies

The following from the Wilton Herald will be a consolation to the man with a lot of enemies:
"You have no enemies? Then you

"Considerable surprise was occasioned by the failure of Sheboygan to make good and get into the league. This city seemed very desirous to gain admittance to the league until quite recently, when it apparently lost all interest, and failed to have a representative at the convention.

"At last night's session, Madison and Winona were admitted to the league which, under the organization agreed upon comprises the following cities: Green Bay, Wausau, Oshkosh, La Crosse, Madison, Winona, Freeport and Eau Claire.

"James Hays of Davenport, and Charles F. Moll of Milwaukee, are active candidates for the office of president of the league, and unless the league decides to grant Mr. Powers a raise in salary, a very lively contest for the presidency is anticipated.

"The convention adjourned at 10 o'clock last night until 9 o'clock this morning."

ected and committees appointed. Tonight and Tomorrow
Tonight the banquet will be given at the Christ Episcopal church, Ninth and Main streets.

The program for tomorrow includes a bible hour, conducted by Dr. W. B. Riley, Minneapolis, Minn., who will take for his theme, "Three Church Members; C. B. Willis, general secretary, Milwaukee, Wis., "Giving Is Service"; Walter M. Wood, Chicago, Ill., "Junior Department and Service"; and in the afternoon another bible hour by Dr. Riley, "Six Essentials in Soul Winning." The business session will follow, when George M. Fisher, M. D., New York, will take "The Whole Man for Service."

Neil McMillan Jr., also will conduct a conference for college men during the afternoon.

La Crosse Athletes Lose

La Crosse lost the basketball championship of the state last night, the Milwaukee Railroad Y. M. C. A. team defeating the local team by a score of 42 to 31. Milwaukee athletes walked away with the large end of all the contests, winning a total of 29 points. La Crosse was second with 23.

The basketball game and athletic contests were held at Germania hall, Fifth and Market streets. The La Crosse team led at the end of the first half, the score being 24 to 19. In the second half the Cream City five played a faster game, winning the contest.

The evening's entertainment was opened by marching, the class between the ages of 11 and 13, taking the floor. Pierre Lavallee and Herbert Devine gave an exhibition of high class tumbling, which brought out the applause of the entire audience. The basketball game started the second half. Then came a wand drill by the class, between the ages of 14 and 16.

Following are the results in the individual events:

Horse—H. Apple, Milwaukee Central, first; H. Carter, Milwaukee Railroad, second; A. A. Major, La Crosse, third.

Parallel bars—A. A. Major, first; H. Apple, second; H. Carter, third. Shot put, twelve pounds—W. Steinmetz, Milwaukee Railroad, first, 39 feet and one-half inch; A. Meyer, Milwaukee Railroad, second, 35 feet, 11 inches; W. H. Roesner, La Crosse, third, 33 feet 8 inches.

Three standing broad jumps—A. Meyer, Milwaukee Railroad, first, 28 feet; H. Apple, Milwaukee Central, second, 27 feet 8 inches; W. Meyer, Milwaukee Railroad, third, 26 feet 1 inch.

Customer—"Yes; I like this suit. I suppose you will make any alterations I may require free?" Tailor—"Oh, yes, sir, certainly." "Very well, then; just alter the price from $20 to $10, and I'll take it with me."

The Tribune is certainly a mighty fine newspaper.

MANY QUAKES TODAY

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

GUANTANAMO, Cuba, Jan. 18.—Davis's wireless report to Admiral Evans says the battleships Missouri and Indiana and destroyer Whipple at Kingston supplied all the dressing they could spare for the five hundred injured.

He says four hundred are dead. He sent the Whipple back to Guantanamo and she was due at 10 o'clock, but has not arrived. She carries full details of the disaster. Davis says the city is quiet. Evans heard of the disaster Tuesday night by intercepted wireless and at once sent the battleships because he knew there were no English troops on the island and feared looting by the negroes.

Only United States Ships There

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—Admiral Evans wires Davis is ashore conferring with the governor of Jamaica.

The American ships are the only men-of-war present. The Cuban consul was killed.

Shock in Italy

UDINE, Italy, Jan. 18.—A severe earthquake occurred at 4:20 this morning. No lives were lost.

HAVANA, Jan. 18.—Admiral Evans, by wireless to the cruiser Columbia here, states a huge tidal wave has changed the coast line of Jamaica. The entire south side of Kingston is under water. It is reported there is no bay left and that the coast is sinking.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—A message to the Hamburg-American line from Captain Forwood, their Kingston representative, was received today in which he says all American tourists escaped. Forwood was seriously injured.

The company's piers were turned into hospitals.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 18.—A wireless telegraph message from Admiral Evans was received at Cape Henry and immediately transmitted to Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—Messages to Admiral Evans have been forwarded. All presumably relate to the Kingston disaster.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Two severe earthquake shocks were felt at 5 o'clock this morning at Kuba, in the government of Baku.

GLASGOW, Jan. 18.—Two slight earthquake shocks occurred at Oban, Scotland, yesterday. There was no material damage.

ORATORY

Prof. H. G. Hayden was toastmaster of the evening. In his address, he gave a brief history of the founding of the club, the name of its founder and the work that the organization has done during its existence of twenty years.

"The Presidency" was the topic of the address of the first speaker, D. L. Wartinbee. President Roosevelt received a fitting testimonial from the speaker, the duties of the president and his actions being given.

Prof. A. A. Zimmer, a member of the faculty of the La Crosse high school, chose a subject close to his pedagogical duties, "Young America." In fact, the discourse showed in a clever way from whence the material for the short essay was drawn.

"The Ladies," always a proper subject of a toast, was assigned to T. J. Larkin, who treated the subject in a masterful manner. The accomplishments of woman and her manifold duties were recited by the banqueters.

"Our Foreign Element," a subject dealing with the great problem of immigration, was taken by Paul Schulze. Statistics, showing the tide of immigration to the United States, were given by the young speaker and also a remedy for the present conditions.

H. L. Taylor discussed "Civic Conditions." His response was confined to conditions as found in La Crosse, with a cure for existing evils.

"Public Opinion," the force that establishes truth in the human race, was treated by A. A. Bentley, his address the banquet. The "Slave Song," rendered by Miss Barbara Russell, and "I Think," by Miss Grace McLindon proved very refreshing and both were heartily enjoyed. Miss Helen Noyes assisted at the piano.

The officers of the Franklin club are:

President—A. A. Zimmer.
Vice president—Paul T. Schulze.
Secretary—C. C. Looney.
Treasurer—M. M. Downey.
Regent—Prof. H. G. Hayden.
Sergeant at arms—Prof. Harry Spence.

The members of the club are:
W. E. Barber, A. A. Bentley, C. H. Berry, Otto Bosshard, Roy Bigham, F. W. Collier, M. M. Downey, Dr. M. W. Dvorak, Ray Dickinson, G. F. Flynn, A. E. Fraser, Clarence Fruit, F. H. Hartwell, John Houser, Prof. H. G. Hayden, C. A. Kaeppler, Prof. T. J. Larkin, C. C. Looney, P. W. Mahoney, Thomas Morris, the Rev. A. Murphy, George B. Marvin Jr., Dr. T. H. Miller, T. A. ## WEDDING HAS NO ROMANCE

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., Jan. 18.—As the result of F. D. Marvin, county superintendent of the poor, resolving himself into a matrimonial agency Peter Schofeld of Buckley, and Mrs. Christina Weese of Traverse City, were married.

Mrs. Weese was divorced a short time ago and has been drifting toward the poor house, aid having been given her by the county. The superintendent knew that Mr. Schofeld wanted a housekeeper and wanted one badly, that he was willing to marry one, so he brought the couple together.

At the meeting cold facts alone figured, the groom's farm, two lots at Buckley and personal property being a great factor. Mrs. Weese had had experience with the fickleness of men, so she looked the ground over carefully, going to Buckley for the purpose. Then she asked for time to think it over.

In the meantime two other women got wise and going to Buckley wooed that he was frightened. When he was around they were perfect doves, but when he left the house they met in a hand-to-hand encounter and were separated by him.

In a spirit of revenge one is said to have filled her valise with silverware on her departure and an officer was required to make her give it up.

Schofeld was attracted by Mrs. Weese, however, and concluded to take her. The climax came when he found that she did not have money enough to pay the attorney who secured her divorce, so the prospective groom shelled out the necessary $20 as first payment on his wife.

DETROIT TIMES TELLS HOW SCHNEIBERG WAS FOUND

Detroit Fan Followed the "Dope" in Chicago Paper, Leading to His Being Drafted

"How Schneiberg Was Found," is the caption over a short article in the Detroit Times, telling of the prowess of the former big pitcher of the Champs, drafted by the Detroit, American league team at the close of last season.

Various tales how Schneiberg was discovered have been told but the Detroit Times says:

If this big Schneiberg, whom Detroit has drafted from the Wisconsin State league for her 1907 pitching staff, turns out as good as he really threatens, the Detroit club will have a local rooter to thank for it. And the local man never even saw him play, either.

There is no more close student of the dope in Detroit than Frank Dean, who runs the Hammond building cigar stand. He is a close friend of several of the Detroit players, knows them all, and is a rich source of information concerning them.

Dean reads every box score he runs across. Among them he noted those of the Wisconsin organization, appearing regularly in a Chicago morning paper. He tabbed several men that looked good and Schneiberg early showed that he was the class of the league. Dean began to watch him particularly and became thoroughly convinced that the man was the goods. Finally Dean called the attention of Manager Armour to the player and, solely on the basis of the dope, Schneiberg was drafted. Three other big league clubs have apparently been similarly tipped off by their friends, but Detroit got the man. Now there isn't a gathering of magnates anywhere that Detroit isn't congratulated on its prospect. Also a million or less ball players are writing local friends stories they have heard of Schneiberg's prowess.

Schneiberg says that Davy Jones, center fielder on the Detroit team, tipped him off to Armour. This is Schneiberg's version of the affair, told last season, two months before he was drafted. At that time he knew he was to be drafted by Detroit for negotiations had been started.

Perhaps it might be well to pat "Pink" Hawley on the back, for he developed Schneiberg. Freeport released the big pitcher and Manager Hawley turned him into the star of the league.

No matter how Frank was discovered, local fans are a unit in wishing him success next season.

GOLFERS MEET AT CHICAGO

(Tribune Special Service.)

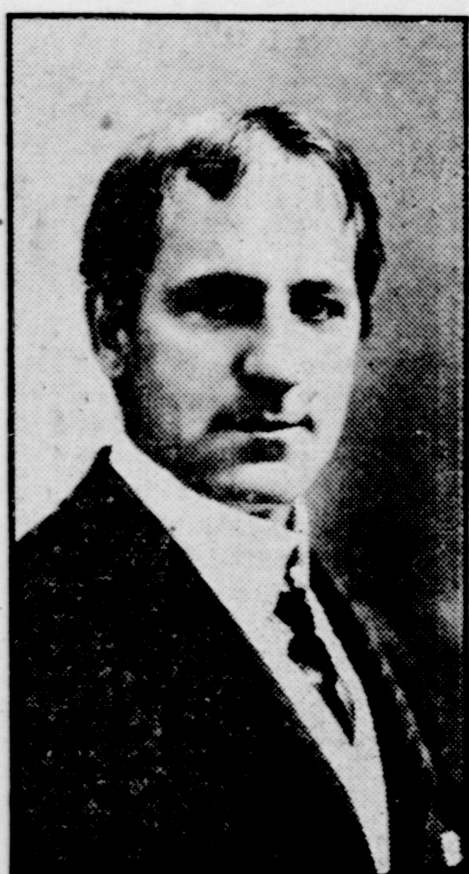

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 18.—The eyes of golf players throughout the country are turned today toward this city, where the United States Golf association is holding its annual session. The meeting, which is being held at the Auditorium, is the greatest in the history of the organization. The delegates met this afternoon to dispose of some preliminary matters, but the real business of the meeting is not to be transacted until tonight.

This is the first time that the governing body has held its annual meeting in the west and as a consequence the golf clubs of Chicago and vicinity have exerted themselves to their utmost in arranging for the social end of the gathering. A luncheon in honor of the delegates was given at the Auditorium this afternoon and numerous other features have been arranged to make the stay of the visitors a pleasant one. It is expected that many of the delegates will remain in the city until the first of the week.

The chief business of the annual meeting is the election of officers for the year. In this matter the association has merely to ratify the ticket proposed by the nomination committee, to which no opposition will be offered. Several new names appear on the ticket. Daniel Chauncey, of the Garden City Golf club of New York, is to succeed Ransom H. Thomas of the Morris Country Golf club, who has served two terms as president of the association. There are to be no further alterations in the list of officers, but the executive committee is to be entirely new. The new executive committee will be composed of Silas H. Strawn, Midlothian Country club; Leighton Calkins, Plainfield Country club; Warren Dickinson, Des Moines Golf and Country club; and Herbert Jacques, of the Country Club of Brookline. Those dropped from the committees are H. Chandler Egan of the Exmoor Country club, A. L. Ripley of the Oakley Country club, and H. G. Leavitt of the Omaha Country club.

The French people appear to be losing interest in the church and state struggle and disorders are becoming more rare.

WILL RETURN TO DESERTED FAMILY

Down and out from whisky and cigarettes, his happy home of a year ago wrecked, and under arrest, charged with desertion, is the condition in which William J. Fackler finds himself. However, the prisoner is willing to start life anew, secure a position and support his wife and four loving children.

This is the story Fackler told Judge Brindley, when arraigned this morning. Once a prosperous locomotive engineer on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and later on the "Soo," Fackler has fallen to the depths. He frankly admitted his condition.

Judge Brindley and District Attorney Bosshard were disposed to be lenient. Fackler had the preliminary hearing adjourned for one month. District Attorney Bosshard moved that the bail be reduced to a minimum. Judge Brindley fixed it at $250, which Fackler believes he will be able to furnish.

Pending the hearing Fackler will endeavor to secure a position and reward the court by his own efforts for the leniency extended. Once bail is secured he will waive the preliminary hearing and be bound over to the circuit court. If he leads the life of a good husband, supports his wife and children, the charge probably will be nolle. This is the present aspect of the case.

Fackler, a kindly looking young fellow, was arrested by Undersheriff John Mohr at Thief River Falls, Minn., Jan. 13. His wife swore out the complaint on Jan. 9, alleging that her husband had deserted her about Oct. 1, 1906.

An effort will be made to secure a position for Fackler and he will start life anew.

Since his return to the city in custody, he has not seen his wife. A meeting probably will be arranged between the two.

"My committee on employment is about the only busy one just now," said Senator Morris today. "During the organization of the legislature, the committee is busy choosing men from the certified lists of the state civil service commission for positions in the capitol during the session."

HANGS SELF IN A FIT OF REMORSE

Pinophy Burtness, the son of H. T. Burtness, a Chaseburg, Wis., farmer, committed suicide on the farm of a neighbor by hanging. Despondency, caused by drinking, is believed to have caused the young man to take his life. Mr. Burtness came to La Crosse yesterday and made arrangements to have the remains shipped to Orfordville, Wis., for interment.

Young Burtness applied to a neighbor for lodging for the night. In the morning he arose and went off by himself. An hour later his lifeless body was found hanging to an apple tree.

DIFFERENT WITH "CHRIST"

"Aw, yer go chase yerself, yer big town marshal, yer can't bluff me, I've been on the hummer too long. I just as soon stay in this burg as any this winter, tsay," said Jacob Sieg, world traveler and vagrant to the town marshal of Onalaska, when ordered out of town yesterday. The marshal feared the man and did not arrest him.

With Sheriff Burns, it was a different proposition. When the sheriff was notified of the burly tramp, defying the town marshal, he hastened to Onalaska. When the official appeared, Sieg had quieted down and was as gentle as a lamb. He hopped into the sleigh of the sheriff like a cricket.

This morning Sieg entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of vagrancy.

DOUBLE MURDER

(Tribune Special Service.)

KARNES CITY, Texas, Jan. 18.—
The second legal execution in the history of Karnes county takes place today, the victim being Ranton Cam-pos, a Mexican, whose crime was a most atrocious one. Campos and divorced his wife with the expectation of marrying Juana McHaney, a Mexican woman who lived near here. But after he had obtained his divorce
Juana changed her mind and refused to marry him. On the morning of March 26 last, Campos met Juana, her sister, aged 20 years, and their little brother, as they were driving across the country in a buggy. He was walking and they asked him to ride with them. He accepted the invitation and after going a short way began to importune Juana to marry him. She persisted in her refusal.
Enraged at this, the man drew a razor from his pocket and cut the girl's throat. When the younger woman screamed he drew his pistol. She grasped it and there was a desperate fight for her life. Both fell from the buggy and this released Campos' hold on the girl and she started to run

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 18.—
Tainted milk is said to be responsible for forty cases of scarlet fever reported at Evanston, Ill. In the report furnished the state board of health it was stated that all the families in which cases of the disease developed had been receiving their milk supply from the same source. The milk was traced to Genoa, Wis., just across the line from McHenry county. Dr. J. C. Westvelt, representing the state board of health, left today for Evanston to assist the authorities there in fighting the disease. The Wisconsin authorities, probably will be requested to take a hand in the matter.

The Southern Cotton association reassembled this morning for the second day of its deliberations with an attendance that had been increased by the arrival of a number of belated delegates. The session opened with a discussion of practical means of making lint cotton bring to the farm-

THEATRE BOX PARTY TO "THE PIT" FOR TRIBUNE READERS

William A. Brady Propounds a Geographical Problem

Lines on the above map represent the route of Wm. A. Brady's "Pit" Company, which will appear at the La Crosse Theatre on Thursday. The route covers pretty much of the United States and is one of the longest ever undertaken by any amusement organization. The company is offered a BOX FREE for this performance to the person who figures the exact number of miles the show will travel this season. Find the route and follow the arrow points. Answers should be addressed to Problem Editor, care Tribune. Answers must be in the post office or the Tribune office not later than Tuesday, January 22, at 3:00 P. M. In case two or more persons send the same, and at the same time nearest to the correct number of miles, the box will be divided between them. The names and successful ones will be printed in Wednesday's Tribune. All answers must be written on the coupon below the map.

ATTELL THE FAVORITE

(Tribune Special Service.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 18.—Tonight, before the Pacific Athletic club, Harry Baker, who has been in the professional ring less than a year, will again face Abe Attell in an endeavor to wrest the featherweight title from that doughty "hero of a hundred battles." Ever since Baker managed to stay twenty rounds with Attell last October there has been a great desire to see them come together again. As the date for the bout approaches the interest has increased and it is certain that an immense crowd will witness the contest.

Both fighters have been training faithfully for several weeks past and in the matter of condition there appears to be no room for choice between them. In weight and measure they likewise compare closely. But in the matter of experience, Attell, of course, has a most decided advantage. He has been in the fighting game for six or seven years, during which time he has faced the best men in his division, among them Frankie Neil, "Kid" Herman, Jimmy Walsh, Tommy Murphy, Harry Forbes, "Kid" Broad and so on down the list to the days when George Dixon was in his prime.

Baker, on the other hand, is a comparative novice at the game. He has been fighting for two years, but only last March did he enter the professional class. His fights with Frankie Neil and Abe Attell are the only notable events in which he has engaged. But in these two fights he made such a splendid showing as to give his admirers the greatest confidence in his future. Both fights went to the full limit of twenty rounds. In the go with Neil, Baker was given the decision, while he lost to Attell by a narrow margin. In good condition he is counted upon to give the little Hebrew champion a lively tussle for the decision tonight, and there is plenty of Baker money taking up the Attell offers at odds averaging 10 to 1.

TO CLOSE THEATRE ON SUNDAY

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 18.—There will be no more Sunday night attractions at the theaters in this city. The ministers unearthed an old ordinance which prohibits performances and calling on Mayor Lehman insisted that the statute be enforced. Mayor Lehman at once notified theater managers not to attempt to give any further entertainments. During the present winter sacred concerts with moving pictures have been drawing large Sunday night crowds. No theatrical entertainments have been given, but the theaters have invariably been filled by nonchurch goers.

SEEK TROUT HATCHERY IN MONROE CO.

W. L. Howes, Tomah, Wis., and Fred Gross and W. H. Berray, Sparta, Wis., were here yesterday to urge the Wisconsin state fish commission to select a site at Trout Falls, Monroe county, for the new trout fish hatchery which the commission expects to build soon. The site proposed consists of twenty acres. Berray, the owner, asked such a high price for it that the commission will not be able to buy it. Only $5,000 is available for the new hatchery.

The commission has looked at a score of sites for the new hatchery and will probably select one of them before long. Under the law providing for this new hatchery it must be located in the western part of the state. All the commissioners except Gov. Davidson were present at the meeting, they being President Calvert Spensley of Mineral Point, Vice President J. J. Hogan, La Crosse; Secretary E. A. Birge of Madison; William J. Starr of Eau Claire; Henry D. Smith of Appleton; and Jabe Alford and A. A. Dye of Madison. Supt. James Nevin also was present.

Health-Economy

will be a repetition of the volcanic disturbance in Carinthia. No more earthquakes need be feared in the western hemisphere in the immediate future.

"Prof. Milne and such men know nothing about the causation of earthquakes. They are chiefly remarkable for the management of instruments for recording seismological events. They admit the existence of tides in the water because these can be actually seen, but refuse to believe that there are tides in the air and earth equally real that can be understood and prognosticated with the same unerring accuracy.

"If I know the exact moment when an earthquake or volcanic eruption happened in history I can foretell exactly where and when it will be repeated. Some day the scientists, who now either ignore or ridicule me, will admit that my conception of the sources of disturbances in our universe is correct."

MISSOURIAN NAMED FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—What is regarded as the first genuine outcropping of presidential politics since the announcement of the willingness of Secretary Taft to be regarded as in the list of receptives, has been pulled off.

It plays the brand of an administration play for a favorite son combination which shall have the effect to place as many delegates as possible under the control of President Roosevelt and his friends, presumably for the purpose of placing them in the Taft column at the psychological moment.

The first program announced of this kind is that of the Missouri republicans here of an intention to bring out Senator Warner of that state as a candidate for the presidential nomination. Maj. Warner is an exceedingly popular man in the west and southwest, and is believed to be certain to round up many delegates for himself and under circumstances which would land him where they were most needed.

The friends of Senator Warner are asserting that his candidacy is announced in real earnest and that he will not be a stalking horse for any other candidate, whether of the administration or not. Warner, however, is recognized as one of the staunch and loyal friends of President Roosevelt among the republican senators.

READERS SHOULD KNOW THIS

Cut this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatever.

The prescription is simple, and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at every good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood relieving the worst forms of Rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood.

As you or anyone of your family, especially the old folks, may be attacked at any time it would be wise to cut this out and save it.

A well-known local druggist is authority that this prescription is safe to use at any time.

Mix it yourself.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Don't Buy Cheap Materials in New Colors—Wash Flannels.

The wise woman never invests in the new shades unless she can afford a good fabric, for in cheap cloths they are horribly crude, and it is safer, if one's allowance is small, to keep to the well known browns, blues and black. Purple, too, can be purchased in pretty shades, but directly old rose, louis blue and the new wine tones are sought for a good price must be paid.

Wash flannels come in lovely designs this season, and the gray flannels in the different plaids are exceptionally good. A waist of this soft plaid is very attractive when lighted with the new gayly colored neck arrangements and belts.

All black hats draped in black ostrich plumes are much liked. All white will never lose their popularity with some women for special occasions and with the combination of white wings flaring high at one side will meet with the approval of her who likes that touch of black and white.

The woman who wants a suit that will stand hard wear and yet be suitable for ordinary daytime wear will be wise if she selects a rough cloth of a plain dark color or a mixed cloth on the dark gray tones.

Messaline is one of the most graceful materials for bridesmaids' gowns. It falls readily into the clinging lines Dame Fashion insists upon, and its price is not prohibitive.

The newest black marabout and ostrich feather stoles have a few white feathers showing here and there to relieve the dead black effect, which is apt to be too heavy except for mourning.

The gray voile afternoon gown illustrated is trimmed with velvet ribbon outlined with a tiny silk braid. The yoke is of lace, and the velvet is a shade darker than the material.

Serviceable Theater Wrap—Silk Buttons For Trimming.

For a serviceable wrap for the theater or for afternoon nothing is better than a dark gray cloth trimmed with fur collar and cuffs or worn with a long fur boa or stole of some kind. This cloak should be sufficiently long, quite covering the dress unless intended for carriage wear, when a shorter wrap is generally preferred.

Multitudes of silk crochet buttons are used again, and they are to be had in all the fashionable colors.

Separate lace blouses still hold their own, and the embroidered ones are the handsomest. They are made with elbow sleeves.

One very important item for the home dressmaker to consider is where to place the skirt fastening. Many women prefer a front fastening, hiding the hooks under a box plait or strapped seam as the skirt happens to be plaited or plain.

The gown that is made in shirt waist style fills so many needs that almost every woman includes several in her winter outfit. The frock seen in the cut is of nut brown henrietta trimmed with plaid that shows shades of brown and tan with lines of silver.

WHERE PRICES AND QUALITY ARE RIGHT

Probably mothers could make their daughters stop wearing high heels by telling them they were good for the digestion.

The spinster has a strenuous time trying to make herself believe that she is a man hater.

Stake the average man to a drink, a square meal and a good cigar and he cares not how wags the world.

Some people can't tell a good story when they hear it.

Some people fuss at a boy just to keep in practice.

Wise Counsel from the South
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me such great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." ## FIANCEE IS MISSING

LEAD, S. D., Jan. 18.—It has just come to light that a young man wearing female attire and passing himself off for a young woman has been setting the pace for society belles in a number of the smaller towns in western South Dakota and breaking the hearts of young men, and that the secret of his sex was revealed but a few weeks before the date set for his marriage to Roscoe J. Billman, a well-to-do young man living near Spearfish.

The young man came into the Black Hills last summer disguised as a woman and went under the name of Helen Manley. He was so skillful in his disguise and in voice and manner, and impersonated a young woman so well that nobody suspected that he was not a young woman until a few days ago, when he met with a slight accident which resulted in his sex becoming known.

Immediately after his secret was revealed he disappeared and has not since been seen by Billman or others who knew him. His real name was not revealed.

PRAYER MEETINGS ON TRAINS

(Special Tribune Service.)

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Two enterprising and up-to-date evangelists have hit upon the idea of a train prayer meeting. Suburban travelers are the ones approached by these two self-appointed missionaries, whose first "attack" has been made upon the North London railway trains, morning and evening. One plays hymns on a concertina, and joins in singing and praying. These services on wheels, though occasionally resented, are not generally disapproved. Indeed, many business men who crowd the cars at the times these services are held, seem to enjoy them. So enthusiastic are the originators over their success that—provided sufficient funds are forthcoming—they purpose extending their sphere of activity to other railway lines. They have received the consent of several railway companies already, who favorably view the new departure.

For three hours she has been sitting on his lap. "Will you love me thus always, darling?" she murmured. "Ye—yes, dearest," he replied; "if the chair doesn't break."

KNOWS ALL ABOUT EARTHQUAKES

LONDON, Jan. 18.—"It is all the effect of the sun and the moon," said Hugh Clements, the meteorologist.

Prof. Clements is the man who on Jan. 9 predicted earthquakes to take place in America Jan. 12.

"The sun and the moon," he continued, "cause all earthquakes and every other natural disturbance. They produce atmospheric tides. The only difference is that the denser the medium is the faster the movement.

"The waves of air, which are the least dense of the three media, have the slowest tides. Water is next and the earth is the most rapid. When the earth tides reach water they are blocked and force accumulates until an explosion results and all the earthquakes.

"All meteorological conditions can be accurately foretold by observation of the sun and moon and the tidal positions. I predicted the recurrence of the Vesuvius eruptions, the recent seismic shocks in northern Europe, and missed the Kingston upheaval by only the matter of a day or two.

"The next earthquake will occur in Europe on Jan. 21 or thereabouts. It

Chicago a Gold Mine

FORTUNES are being dug out of it every day. Men come here without a copper and win fabulous riches. Give the right man the right idea and the game is his. ¶ For YOU next SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE may contain the right idea. Every issue contains many remarkable features—among them is THE WORKER'S MAGAZINE, containing from forty to fifty articles specially written for energetic young men and women ambitious of success. It unfolds experiences like this: How one man rode to Chicago through a Nebraska snow storm on the cowcatcher of a U. P. locomotive, and how ten years later the same man rode back again over the same track in his own private car. ¶ Read next Sunday's issue—perhaps it may be the turning point in your career.
